

Contents		Page
Editorial: An Evolving National Early Childhood Research Culture	Marilyn Fleer	v
Review Panel
Guidelines for authors
Understanding How Mothers Cope: Implications For Early Childhood Professionals	Anna M. Bower and David C. Chant	1
Asking Children to Help: Culturally Acceptable Justifications	Jennifer Bowes, May J. Chen, Li Qing Shan and Li Yuan	9
Caregiver Reflections on Infant Interactions in Long Day Care	Joanne Brownlee, Kym Irving, Donna Berthelsen and Gillian Boulton-Lewis	18
One Size Fits All? Early Childhood Teachers' Responses to System-Wide Assessment Reform	Lorriane Corrie	32
Children's Expression of Their Understanding of Mental States; More Than Speaking Their Mind	Sheila Degotardi and Toni Cross	46
"I Annoy Him and He Hits Me", Interactions of Popular, Neutral and Unpopular Children	Sue Dockett, Diane Szarkowicz, Pandora Petrovski, Sheila Degotardi and Fiona Rovers	59
"We Own What We're Doing", Developing Preservice Early Childhood Teachers as Researchers	Pauline Harris	85
Multiple Realities: Change in The First Years of School	Catherine Patterson and Alma Fleet	85
Teachers are Reconceptualisers Too	Rosemary Perry	98
Are we Thinking What They are Thinking: Using the Bananas in Pyjamas to Explore Children's Understanding of False Belief	Diane Louise Szarkowicz	109
Behind the Bookshelf: The Role of The Early Childhood Professional in Literacy Education	Jennifer Taylor and Laurie Makin	120
Young Gifted and Talented Children: Early Childhood Teacher Attitudes and Practices on the North Coast of N.S.W.	Mimi Wellisch	131
"Would You Rather A Girl Than Me?": Aspects of Gender in Early Childhood Contexts with Technology	Nicola Yelland	141